VOL. V. NO. 306.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 21, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

AFTER WRONG-DOERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., December 20.—The stewards took drastic action following some features of the racing today. Jockey Bullman was suspended for the meeting for foul riding on Stuttgart. George W. Miller and his horses and jockey Joe Weber suspended pending investigation of the running of Loving Cup, and it was ordered that Meddler's entry be refused at Oakland in the future.

THE McDOWELL STABLE.

Mr. T. C. McDowell's stable for next year will be composed of the following horses, the ages given being as they will be after January 1, 1900: Batten, b. c. 4, by Candlemas or Hayden Edwards—Sudie McNairy.

His Excellency, ch. c. 3, by Esher—Excellenza. Amarillo, b. c. 3, by Wadsworth—Aggie M. Villa V., b. f. 3, by Linden—Peninah. Suzon, br. f. 2, by Lamplighter—Kitty Clive. Brown filly, 2, by Prince of Monaco—Narka. Chestnut filly, 2, by Prince of Monaco—Reine d'Or.

Bay filly, 2, by Lamplighter—Constancy. Chestnut colt, 2, by Margrave—Lasca. Chestnut filly, 2, by Tenny—Kanawha. Bay filly, 2, by De Beauvoir—Hypatia.

After an inspection of these horses in their winter quarters Mr. S. B. Weems says of them in a recent letter to Morning Telegraph: "Batten has grown some, though not a very great deal, since the season ended. He is an exceedingly good type of horse, and but for the fact that his off fore ankle is under suspicion he might be regarded as a very likely coming four-year-old, inasmuch as he did not appear to be very much behind Ethelbert in point of racing quality last season. Mr. McDowell has never been able to exactly figure out what is the matter with Batten's ankle. He either struck or strained the member. When he returned to the farm the ankle was badly swollen. Under treatment it has improved of late, and there is probably more than even chances that the horse will train. Mr. McDowell is likely to race in the east again this coming year, but his decision in that respect will depend much on how Batten and some of his other horses shape up in the spring.

"His Excellency is sound, but this colt proved something of a disappointment last season. He had speed, but would not stay, although he ran two or three good, game races at that. Villa V. ought to develop into a useful filly.

"Of the yearlings the brown filly, by Lamplighter—Kitty Clive, recently sold by Mr. McDowell to E. C. Cowdin for $2,500, is the best, and she is a host in herself. This will be a big mare, broad over the top, and strongly yet symmetrically built. She has an excellent head, indicating intelligence, good, clean, straight limbs, extra good driving power, and in fact well near the perfection mark in every particular. This mare will handle stake weight without any trouble, and if she performs as well as she looks she will run fast, too. So far as appearances go she would have been a bargain at twice the price paid for her. She will be trained by Mr. McDowell for Mr. Cowdin.

"Of the weanlings, the chestnut colt by Halma—Sudie McNairy, is the best. He is a Han-over type, lengthy underneath, short coupled, and well muscled. This is a good big, wiry, well grown colt. He will make a big horse, and one of a great deal of quality. Mr. McDowell thinks a great deal of this colt, as he has a right to do, for he is one of the best weanlings I have seen. The brown colt by Lamplighter, out of Kanawha, is also a good colt, stout and shunky, but lacks the quality of the Halma youngster."

NEW ORLEANS NOTES.

Some of the yearlings quartered at the track are being sent along steadily in anticipation of the two-year-old races that will be included in the program next month. It is a little early to predict their relative merit, still there are some grand lookers in the bunch, and they are reeling off quarters at a rate that bespeaks some keen contests when they are seen with the colors.

John A. Rhea, a two-year-old of considerable promise, broke his shoulder while galloping Sunday morning, and a bullet put an end to his suffering. It was started out for a six furlong trial, but after reeling off five furlongs in 1:02, the carelessness of his rider brought a collision with the track fence, which broke the colt's shoulder. His rider escaped with a shaking up.

C. Johnson, the steeplechase jockey, who has been riding for G. W. Poole during the past summer, has signed to ride for T. Hitchcock, the eastern owner. He will leave for the latter's farm at Aiken S. C., in a few days, where he goes to school some of the Hitchcock horses during the winter months.

Kieme will not be permitted to start in future, under the track rule which prohibits the starting of horses subject to bleeding. The edict is a good one, as it not only protects the bettor, but means the doing away of an element of danger for horses and riders.

E. Kelly, the cross-country jockey, who rode Philas and others of the Craven horses on the Canadian circuit last summer, has been engaged by D. M. Hogan to ride Boanerges in the jumping events here.

The fast sprinter, Merry Day, will be fired and turned out. He will not be taken up until late in the spring.

The entries of Rotterdam and Island Prince will not be accepted until they are schooled at the barrier.—New Orleans Picayune.

THE SPRECKELS SALE.

The sale of yearlings bred by Mr. Adolph Spreckels at his Napa Stock Farm held in San Francisco last Thursday night was marked by the best returns yet achieved for the produce of Mr. Spreckels' breeding establishment. A fine black colt, Cambaceras, by the Australian horse, Idealium, from the Australian mare, Candid, brought the star price of the sale. A feature was the sale of the twins, Our Punch and My Judy, by Eolo—Irene. They went to Mr. F. Ayers as a pair for $75. Being small, they are not to be used for racing. The prices and purchasers were as follows:

Belzebub, b. c. by Crighton—Lisa Hock; W B Jennings.....	$1,000
Cavanaugh, b. c. by Idealium—Lady Cleveland; E W Purser.....	600

Winner—B. f. by Brutus—Nabette.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next two were ridden out. Jingle Jingle showed the most speed, was away well and finally ridden. White Fern had a rough journey and ran an excellent race under none too good a ride. Correct quit and came again. Saetello ran a fair race. St. Apollinaris showed early speed but stopped in the stretch. The same can be said of Croker.

Scratched—11776 Nora Ives, 107.

Overweights—Schanken, 2 pounds; Furia, 1.

Jingle Jingle, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. White Fern, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Correct, show, 2 to 1. Synia, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5.

Time, 25.51, 1:03, 1:16, 1:42.

Winner—B. c. by Duncombe—Orange Leaf.

Post 15 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second handily. Whaleback came fast at the end of the race and won under strong urging. Stuttgart fouled Faversham badly within sixty yards of the finish, knocking him out of the race. Anchored ran a poor race. If he had been of any account he would have won, as he was off first by about four lengths. Faversham acted badly at the post and was worn out in setting the pace.

Whaleback, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Anchored, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Faversham II., place, 1 to 4; show, out.

Alaska ran the best race of his life and was going great guns at the finish. Don Luis weakened at the end as also did Mainstay. Isabelle showed some speed. The winner was run up $100 but was retained.

Winner—Ch. h. by Oadfellow—Sister to Pendleton.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive of two. Dare II. ran under strong restraint for five furlongs, then took the lead, but barely lasted long enough to win. Dr. Bernays could not quite get up, although he in another stride would probably have won. Dr. Marks finished strongly. Glen Ann and Owyhee both showed speed and ran their races. Dr. Marks ran a surprising race and should be watched.

PEDIGREE BLANKS.

On linen paper, artistically edged in colors, ruled and arranged for six generations of sires and dams of individuals and their ancestors. Ten cents each, $1.00 per dozen, $3.50 per hundred. No owner of a stallion should be without a supply.

DAILY RACING FORM.

124-126 Fifth Avenue, Chicago, Ill.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form" and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.
